

ACTION PLAN

Overview

In this course, you will learn:

- Who is most likely to molest a child.
 - How to identify the characteristics of a child molester.
 - How to differentiate between the categories of child molesters.
 - What three things enable a molester to harm a child.
 - How child molesters violate children's boundaries.
-

Lesson 1

Who is Most Likely to Molest a Child?

Of all molestations that are committed, which group is the highest percentage of molesters? Family members, strangers, or someone else the child knows?

Take note of the percentages.

_____ % are by family members

_____ % are by strangers

_____ % are by someone else the child knows

What are the Characteristics of a Child Molester?

Make note of the common characteristics.

Categories of Child Molesters

Child molesters typically fit into one of three categories. List the three categories and make note of how they differentiate.

1.

2.

3.

Enablers

What three things enable a molester to harm a child?

A

B

C

Watch Out for These Behaviors

What things can you look out for in order to potentially save a child from a molester?

Checklist

After completing this lesson, I am able to:

- Identify who is most likely to molest a child.
 - Identify the characteristics of a child molester.
 - Differentiate between the categories of child molesters.
 - List three things enable a molester to harm a child.
 - Explain how child molesters violate children's boundaries.
-

Action Plan

How can you minimize the opportunities for a child molester to take advantage of a child? Remember the things that enable a child molester that you learned today.
